EASTER LOVE OFFERING

It's Easter Love time. Time to prayerfully consider a gift of "Love" It is at this time that we are reminded just how much we are loved by our Heavenly Father. Loved so much, that He sent His One and Only Son, Jesus Christ to pay the price for our sins by laying down His life on the cross. He became the ultimate sacrifice, His blood the atonement for our sins.

Each year, these envelopes are collected by the LWML ladies who choose a project within Trinity to direct these offerings towards. This year the ladies would like the monies collected to better enhance the quality of our live stream services by updating equipment in the sound and video booth.

Please prayerfully consider placing a donation in your Easter Love Offering envelope and place your "Easter Love Offering" envelope and drop it in the offering plate on Sunday morning, anytime between now and Easter Sunday.

FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

From the Pastor's Pen,

It appears now, that when you receive this, I will be somewhere in New Zealand or Australia. Our cruise this time seems to be a go.

Chris and I thank those who have encouraged us as we planned to make this trip. God has blessed us to be able to travel to various parts of the world. We love to travel, having been in almost every state and now seeing other places of God's great creation. God is good!

Ash Wednesday is February 22 this year. On Ash Wednesday, worshipers may choose to have the mark of the cross on their foreheads with ashes. We begin our journey gathered around Lord's Supper, sharing our unity as children of God. Begin the forty-day journey, together, as God's people in this place. In this newsletter you will find the schedule for Lent. Our theme this year is "Promised Treasures." In this world, life is not pain free, it can be a struggle. God gives us promised treasures, we will consider some of the treasures we have in our earthly journey as we look to the eternal promise of salvation. Last year we offered soup meals following our morning worship and before our evening worship. There was a sign-up in the narthex each week, we always had plenty of food. What a great way for God's people to fellowship before sharing in worship together each week. Services will be at 10:00 a.m. in the morning and at 6:30 p.m. in the evening. Supper in the evening will begin at 5:00 p.m. Morning Soup Luncheon will begin following the service.

I would like to thank those who remembered us at Christmas time. We have enjoyed ministering with God's people. We have felt your kindness, love, and care for us. It is truly appreciated. Many in the congregation also remembered the staff and workers here, which they shared. We greatly appreciate the support for ministry. In sending His Son God showed His love for each of us, we all have received a precious gift from God. We have forgiveness of our sins and the promise of eternal salvation. Together we are called to be ambassadors of reconciliation, when we struggle, we need to assist one another to reconcile before God. His Son Jesus Christ brought reconciliation to every one of our lives through His cross, death, and resurrection. What a gift! It is ours to share.

May our prayers go before our God, for our faith community, for our school, for our staff, for all who give of their talents and gifts, and as you call a shepherd to serve in your midst. Pray that God would direct the process and candidates so that ministry in this community continues to grow and move forward in His love, grace, and forgiveness.

A Note from Our Church President

Hi Trinity.

I thought I might introduce myself to anyone I haven't met yet. My husband, Aaron and I moved from Littleton to Keenesburg in 2020. We found Trinity in the summer of 2021. We got to know the church and became members in early 2022. Angela Erickson graciously let me help with VBS this past summer.

You may have spotted Aaron in the praise band or choir this year. We began training for the Audio/Video booth early this fall and now we get to cover it once a month. We are late service people but are at the early service when we cover the Audio/Video booth. Please don't hesitate to stop by and say hello on your way in or out.

One of the reasons I accepted the nomination for chairperson is that Aaron and I were familiar with the evaluation process for Ambassadors of Reconciliation from a previous experience. Learning that Trinity had been working the reconciliation process, attending the seminar day last January, and participating in the reconciliation Bible study were factors in our membership and my comfort supporting the congregation as chairperson. Thanks for your commitment to getting help for your congregation and looking for solutions. I'm so excited to walk with you the next couple of years.

As far as church business is concerned, I want to assure you that the Elders are working on the call-process. Paperwork can take a round or two of revisions and fixes. The Elders are working with the synod to get the call paperwork correct and intend to have that done within a couple weeks from when they met on the 14th. I am working with the transition team to submit the by-laws and constitution for approval this week (no later than Jan 20).

His mercies are new every morning. No matter what happens in any given day, you have the opportunity to choose how to respond. Pause. Ask God what to do. Continue. Intentionally make today a good one.

--Angela Riemer

A Mental Health Minute

I like something that Charles Spurgeon said, "Worry doesn't empty tomorrow of its sorrows, it only empties today of its strength." That quote suggests that worry in and of itself isn't productive so I shouldn't spend too much time in it. But I also know that if I don't accept that I'm worried, I end up just laying awake at night, stress eating, and not getting anything done. So what's a person to do?

First, I have to recognize that I'm worried and say to myself, "Of course you are worried about so and so, it has the potential to affect you." And since my worry comes in the form of playing out scenarios and conversations over and over and over again in my head, I have to stop that so I don't drive myself crazy. "You're doing IT again. Stop." "Stop" signals my brain that I'm about to make a change. Then I make a plan. I make decisions about my worry. Should I do anything about it right now? What?

Sometimes the answer is to tell God about it and ask Him to help me put it aside. "Hey God, I'm at work. My car is broken and at the shop and I am worried about how much it is going to cost, but I have to get this project done by 3pm. Can you help me focus on my project for now since I don't know anything yet?"

Sometimes the answer is to just do it right now, like when I've walked by the kitty litter three times and felt guilty about not scooping it.

Sometimes the answer is "It isn't yours." That's the hardest answer for me because it means that I really should stay out of the situation because someone else needs to work something out for themselves and my involvement might interfere with their growth. That's when I have to say "I can't but You can. Help me be present right where I am because right now my kid needs me to play Hi-Ho-Cherry-O."

This approach helps me because I feel like I'm doing something about my worry, and I don't end up letting it take over my focus or my sleep. I know that it is important to God that we trust Him. He wants us to be still and know that He is God. He also doesn't want us making something like worry more important than Him. This is my way of having something practical to help and also honor God. —Angela Riemer

AMAZONSMILE will be discontinued by February 20th, 2023. Since 2013 Amazon shoppers could place their orders through Amazon.Smile and direct a percentage of their purchases to a charity of their choice. After review, Amazon has decided that this approach spreads funds too thin and they are moving toward a unified corporate giving to affordable housing. Thank you to all of you who have been using this and directing their funds to Trinity!

School Happenings

Preschool & K-8

Greetings in Christ,

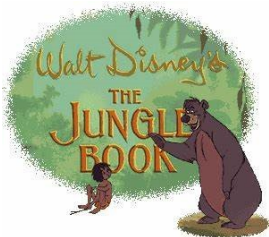

Looking back to December, our school was one of several locations in the area that had pipes freeze and burst over Christmas break. A huge thank you to everyone who helped with the clean-up, and to those who are helping us get “back to normal.” For the time being, we relocated our 3-4 grade class into the cafeteria. Flexibility is not a “Fruit of the Spirit,” but is a virtue of educators.

As I write this, we are finalizing details to kick-off National Lutheran Schools Week. We look forward to a week of dressing up according to fun themes, enjoying special activities, and a whole lot of praising God for our Lutheran school. The theme for this week and for the school year is “Making Disciples for Life.” How awesome it is to see the Spirit at work in this place, growing students and families in their discipleship.

February is for love (Valentines Day) and Early Registration. Because we love our school so much, we want to get the word out that Trinity is a great option. Everyone who enrolls before March 3 will receive 50% off registration fees. There are a lot of great things happening at Trinity. Help us fill the school so that others may experience it as well.

Keep our staff in your prayers as we enter the final trimester of the school year. There is a lot going on for everyone, personally and professionally. We keep Tonaira Ewald in our prayers as she takes time away from work while nurturing her newborn. We give thanks for Renee Huisman for filling in as our long-term kindergarten sub. We place our trust in the Lord, confidently knowing that He is at work, and He goes before us.

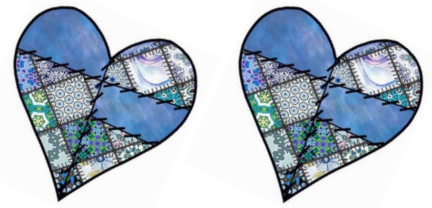

Mark your calendars: Thursday, May 4, Trinity Lutheran School proudly presents, Disney's “The Jungle Book.” More details to come. In the meantime, our students are working hard to display their God given talents and abilities.

Thank you for all of your support!

Principal Kyle Erickson
Director Gwen Marshall

Blessings from the Heart

February is the month of Valentine's Day and a good time to remember the serving hearts of our Trinity Quilter's, who give generously of their time and talents. As 2023 has them thinking of all the exciting things they have going, here are some of the community outreaches they have contributed to in 2022:

- 91 quilts to the Victims Advocacy Program;
- 57 quilt to U C Health Comfort Care;
- 13 Walker bags that were handed out through North Range Peer Counselors;
- 26 quilts and 15 pillow cases to Uvalde Victims and their families in response to the school shooting in Uvalde, Tx;
- 24 Patriotic quilts given to The Denver VA by Cubby the Comfort Dog;
- 200+ Dog beds given to family of the quilters; the Humane Society of Greeley; the Kearney Nebraska Animal Shelter; the Cattle Dog Rescue; and there some given away for free at the Bazaar last October.
- Donations for Wings (a residential treatment home for mothers with addictions and children) included over 100 items, i.e. diaper bags, quilts for children and adults, receiving blankets, and baby clothes. Wings is run by North Range.
- This year, they once again adopted Wings for Christmas, providing gifts for 17 moms and 13 children.

This industrious group comes together on Mondays from 9 am to 10 pm. More than 40 men and women work upstairs in the school and some, even from home. Using materials from the Quilters reserves, these quilters quilt at home. One such quilter works diligently to provide baby blankets for Life Stories, a division of CASA. In 2022, 27 baby quilts were made and given to Life Stories.

Accumulatively, the Quilters have completed 7700 hours of service to R.S.V.P. for which R.S.V.P. will receive approximately $30.00 an hour in grant money.

Here at home, the Quilters made 10 Baptismal banners for baptism's at Trinity. They also provided a quilt for the PTL fundraiser last spring where the quilt was auctioned for over $700.00. After the October Bazaar, the Quilters gave $2500.00 of their earnings to the school for the Scholarship Fund to help students in need with tuition costs. Keep these wonderful people and their serving hearts in your prayers. Give thanks and praise to God for the blessing of our Trinity Quilters!

Director of Christian Education

Years ago, our littlest one was practicing her song for the school Christmas program. When her favorite part of the song came, she would hug herself as she beamed and sang with all her might,

"How I love my Jesus, who was little then, for I know He loves me, little though I am!"

We love because He first loved us. What a simple and profound statement, but one that can make all of us, at any age, filled with awe and wonder and gratefulness. Let's share this love with everyone we meet, as we serve as Christ's hands and feet.

Some things for your schedule:

1st and 3rd Sundays: Youth Group, 7:00 p.m.-8:00 p.m.

Saturday, February 11: Super Bowl Subs and Valentine's Day Meal Prep

Fat Tuesday, Shrove Tuesday, Mardi Gras – whatever you call it, Ash Wednesday is the next day, so let's load up on delicious pancakes together! We'll provide pancakes, butter, and syrup – bring any other toppings you would like to share!

Note from the Editor: A few days ago, my daily Bible reading was the story of Joseph. It is one of my favorite Bible stories in the Old Testament. In a world where change is perpetual, Joseph's story is a reminder that God is in control and everything works towards His plan no matter how many ups and downs or plot twists there are. Joseph certainly had his fair share. He was hated by his brothers and rebuked by his father when he shared the dreams God had given him. His brothers plotted to kill him but decided instead to sell him into slavery. Right about now, if this were my story, I would be in a panic asking God what in the world is happening. As much as I trust in the Lord, (and I do) I am not immune from moments of doubt, or paralyzing panic when things go awry. The Bible continues Joseph's story by saying God was with Joseph and that his master prospered, so Joseph was put in charge of the entire household. For a slave, Joseph was doing pretty well, until Joseph lands in prison because he refuses the advances of his master's wife! The Bible does not portray Joseph as one who asked "why me" or was depressed. Instead, Joseph works hard and is put in charge of the prison and prisoners. He was right where God wanted him to be so that he could interpret the dreams that Pharaoh would have in the future and become second only to Pharaoh in Egypt allowing Joseph to save his brothers and their families from a crippling famine. Joseph's trust in the Lord did not waver. I find that inspirational and something to aspire to. Changes are happening at Trinity. There is a new Congregational President, new Constitution and By-laws and hopefully a new Pastor. Like Joseph, put your trust in the Lord. May you find peace in this ever-changing world by trusting in the Lord. "And we know that for those who love God all things work together for good, for those who are called according to his purpose." Romans 8:28
